

Codes of Conduct

The mission of the All American Youth Football and Drill Team (AAYFDT) is to provide a safe, fun learning environment for the youth of our community. We emphasize sportsmanship, teamwork and respect for authority figures (Directors, Coaches, and Game Officials). Our focus is on developing good life skills through the sports of football and cheerleading. The AAYFDT will not tolerate verbal or physical abuse of its volunteer coaches, referees, or participants from any Parent, Participant, or Spectator. Spectators, as well as the participants and coaches, are expected to abide by the code of conduct described here at all AAYFDT events. While most of the adults and children in the program will abide by this code without being instructed, it is being published to protect the children, the integrity of our program, and emphasize the values of the AAYFDT.

Coaches Code of Conduct

As a Team Coach, you (through your actions and words) set the example for your participants, parents/guardians, and spectators. You set the tone and lead by example. Read the participants, spectators, and parents Code. Understand what is being asked of all participants in your sport. Actively promote these Codes. Coaches must place the well-being and safety of each participant above all other considerations, including the development of performance. Ensure that each participant is correctly dressed with the necessary safety equipment (helmet, mouthpiece, pads, etc.) before being allowed to play. Get treatment for an injured participant immediately. Co-operate fully with medical personnel in the best interest of the participant. Never, either physically or mentally, push children beyond their abilities. The game is of minor consideration when compared to the child’s future health and well-being. Encourage and guide participants to accept responsibility for their own behavior and performance. Never condone unacceptable behavior. Accept the decisions of the game officials on the field as being fair and called to the best ability of said officials. The officials are in charge of all games; their decisions are final. Always be prompt, courteous, and direct when dealing with the League Officials, opposition Coaches, and Referees. Read the AAYFDT Official Rules of Competition and assist your participants and parents in understanding them. All coaches must be certified through USA Football.

Agree to a background screening of your application with regards to your suitability to work with children.
